AIRPORT NEWS CLIPPER ARRIVES TODAY

PAN AMERICAN AIRWAYS HONOLULU CLIPPER was held up again yesterday and is now expected to arrive in Hongkong this afternoon from Manila, with U.S. mails, dated San Francisco, Aug. 13.

The Clipper will return to Manila en route to San Francisco tomorrow morning.

The CHINA CLIPPER is scheduled to arrive in Hongkong on Tuesday next, Aug. 27, and will start on her return flight the following morning.

IMPERIAL AIRWAYS
Bad weather has delayed Imperial Airways inward service, which is now expected to arrive in Hongkong on Sunday afternoon.

An outward service, taking mails for the United Kingdom and Indo-China, Malaya, Java and Australia will leave Kai Tak on Sunday morning.

Y'S MEN'S CLUB TIFFIN

The Hongkong Y's Men's Club held its weekly tiffin yesterday afternoon at the St. Francis Hotel.

Members present were Messrs. C. P. Wong, Albert Chan, W. E. Lee, S. W. Li, K. L. Chow and S. P. Tan and Dr. F. I. Cheung.

There was no speaker at the meeting.

Auxiliary Nursing Service

The First Aid Examination (practical) will be held at Queen Mary Hospital today, at 5.15 p.m. sharp.

Owing to the typhoon the Home Nursing revision lecture arranged by Dr. Ruttenberg at Kowloon Hospital for Wednesday, August 21, was cancelled. There will be no further Home Nursing Lectures before the examination which will be held on September 4 and 5.

The Royal Observatory reported at 5.30 p.m. yesterday that pressure remains highest over Manchuria and the Pacific to the east of Japan, and a trough of low pressure extends from Indo-China across Luzon to the Caroline Islands.

The typhoon is centred over Hainan Strait, moving slowly west.

The weather was much cooler yesterday the maximum being 79 and minimum 73 compared with 84 and 75 on Wednesday.

ONE CASUALTY
The only casualty in the typhoon which passed to the south-west of Hongkong on Wednesday was a Chinese pedestrian who was killed by a motor car which was blown off from the fifth floor of the Fire Brigade building, Des Voeux Road Central, and struck the victim on the head.

The pontoon, or floating landing, used by Pan-American Airways at Kai Tak was torn from its moorings, a hut collapsed in Po-Kong-village and the road at Shatin was flooded.

Reports of damage suffered by fishermen have not yet been received.

THE RAINFALL
The typhoon contributed a total of 2.34 inches up to 10 o'clock yesterday morning, bringing the year's total to 103.02 inches which is 39.59 above normal.

The following figures were recorded at the Royal Observatory yesterday:—11 a.m. 0.065 inches, noon: 0.010, 1 p.m. 0.160, 2 p.m. 0.705.

The total from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. was 0.94 inches.

The Clinic, which is conducted by the Convent of the Maryknoll Sisters, was attended by 114 new patients and 199 others, who returned for further advice. The total number of patients in attendance since the opening of the Clinic on April 25 was 266.

Of the 114 new patients examined, diagnoses made revealed: Clinical Tuberculosis, 5; Suspected Tuberculosis, 11; Known contacts, 5 and Non-Tubercular (Clinically) 92. The sex distribution was equal, namely 57, and of the number of new patients examined 84 were adults and 30 were children.

The patients came from the following districts: Kowloon City (82), Shumshuipo (8), Yau-mat (8), Hakka Village (5), Mongkok (4), Hongkong (2), Cheung Sha Wan (2), Hunghom (1), Lal Chi Kok (1), Wanchai (1).

House visiting is now in progress, soya bean milk (provided by the Hongkong Soya Bean Milk Company) being used as a means of contact and during the period under review, 362 half-pints were distributed. Cod Liver Oil substitute was also given to many of the patients.

The report concludes with a description of some of the homes visited many of which were dark and overcrowded.

ON YOUR TOES

KING'S THEATRE
FEATURE TODAY

Zorina, star of Warner Bros. "On Your Toes," which opens at the King's Theatre today, is as sweet and friendly as she is beautiful and graceful, say those who know her even casually. She is simply too busy with her flourishing career to bother with the kind of temperament usually attributed to stars.

The ballerina's Norwegian ancestry is strongly emphasised in her clear blue eyes, blonde hair and creamy white complexion, which is faultless. She is slightly above medium height, weighs 110 pounds without variance of an ounce from week to week and to month.

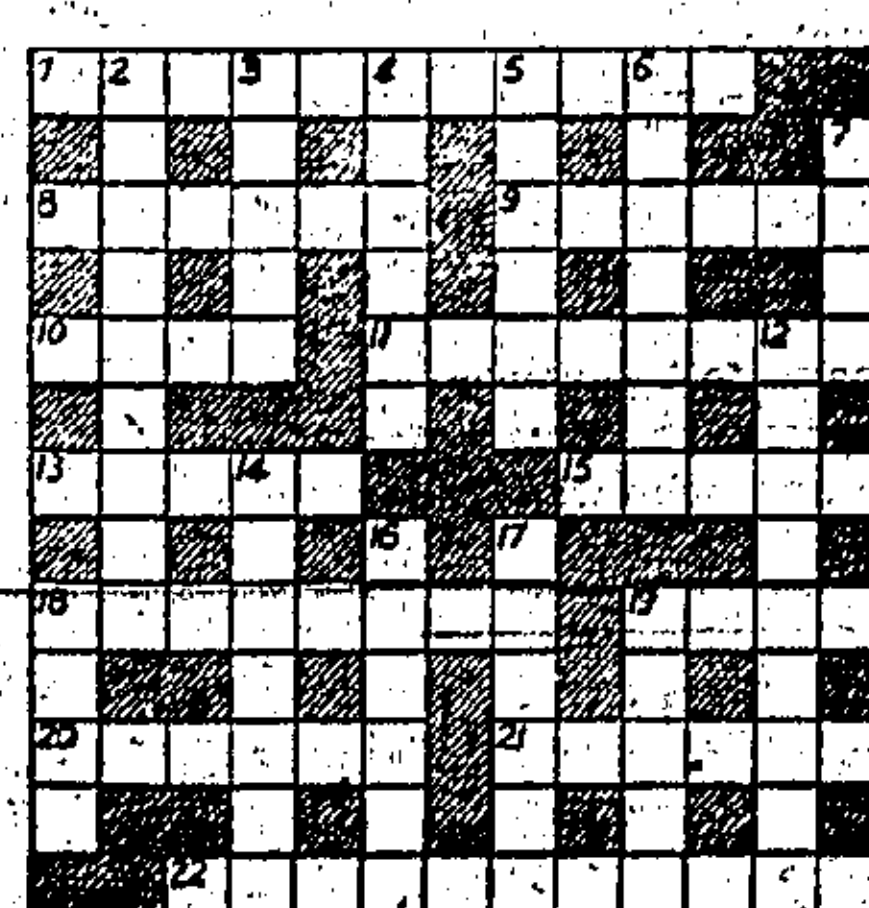

Drawing and sketching is her hobby and she does excellently with both pencil and charcoal. She loves fine music and mentions the Philadelphia Symphony as her favourite orchestra. She loves dogs, carries one, two and even three with her everywhere she travels. Sometimes she thinks they are not worth the worry or the bother, but she has them just the same.

"REPORTS OF PILOTS ERR ON SIDE OF UNDER-STATEMENT"

Commons Told How Britain Computes Air Successes

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—In the House of Commons yesterday, Sir Archibald Sinclair, the Air Minister, was asked to state the methods used for checking and verifying figures in view of the wide disparity between the British and German accounts of losses in air battles.

He replied that casualties caused to enemy aircraft were classified under three main heads: (1) Certainly destroyed; (2) Probably destroyed if it is seen to hit the ground or break up in the air or descend in flames; (3) An enemy aircraft is classified probably destroyed if it is seen to break off combat in circumstances which lead to the conclusion that it must become a loss.

The third category includes those most of the attacks were otherwise abortive.

FATAL CASUALTIES
"Towns in the south and east England and in the Midlands were bombed, damage being done to houses in several places. The number of casualties was small, though some were fatal."

"In one residential area, a short attack was made on the inhabitants by machine-gun. Two enemy aircraft which bombed a town in Lincolnshire were both shot down, their bombs having caused little damage and no casualties."

"Two of our fighters were lost during yesterday's operations but the pilot of one is safe."

YESTERDAY'S RAIDS
LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—Among German losses in yesterday's air raids were three Dornier 17s which were brought down by Spitfires five miles inland on the northeast coast. The crew of one which fell with a wing off and escaped by parachute were taken prisoner.

When a Junker 88 crashed near a southeastern town, the British pilot who had attacked him landed to see what had happened to the victims. All five occupants were dead.

A solitary raider who dived from the clouds on a southeastern town dropped heavy calibre bombs which reduced eight of a row of working class cottages to debris. It is feared that a number of lives were lost.

It is now believed at least 11 enemy planes were brought down yesterday.

"VICTORY ROLL"
LONDON, August 22 (Reuter).—When a solitary raider visited a South-east coast town yesterday, a bomb which fell on a road burst the water main.

The machine twice circled the town, the second time machine-gunning the streets.

Three Hawker Hurricanes who shot down a Nazi bomber celebrated their success by doing a "victory roll" in the air.

There were a number of cases of Nazi airmen bailing out over towns.

AIRMEN CAPTURED
A member of the Home Guard on leaving his home for duty, saw a parachute level with the roof-tops and seized the German as he landed.

Three German airmen descended near a village. Two surrendered to farmworkers and a third to a farmer's wife and her 14-year-old son, who armed himself with his father's rifle. The airman who cried for "mercy" was given tea and had his wounds dressed before he was handed over to the authorities.

NAZI LOSSES
LONDON, August 22 (Reuter).—Sir Archibald Sinclair, Minister for Air, during a broadcast yesterday stated that three more German planes could safely be added to the day's total of enemy losses during raids, which were now ten.

OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUES
LONDON, August 22 (Reuter).—The Air Ministry announced: "Up to 4.30 seven enemy aircraft had been destroyed by our fighters."

Another communiqué said: "Enemy activities over the country yesterday have consisted of a series of attacks by aircraft operating singly or in small numbers."

"There have been many such attacks, some of which were delivered far inland. In some cases it is evident that the enemy's objective was R.A.F. aerodromes, but though damage was done to the living quarters at one of

FRONTIERS IN THE BALKANS

RUMANIA CEDES TWO PROVINCES

BUCHAREST, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—An agreement has been reached between Bulgaria and Rumania regarding Dobruja. The agreement reached at Craiova fixes the new frontiers on the 1912 line.

The territory ceded by Rumania to Bulgaria comprises the two provinces of Durator and Callacra. It also includes Balchik. The heart of Queen Marie, which is preserved in the Chapel of the Royal Palace, has already been removed.

Bulgarian troops are already near Dobruja frontier ready to occupy the new territory as soon as the final agreement is signed. The provinces will be occupied in three hours, and Bulgarian administration will be installed to prevent incidents.

Negotiations will continue concerning technical difficulties in regard to exchange of population and the method of compensation. These are likely to take a fortnight.

BULGARIAN REFUSAL
It is understood Rumania requested rectifications of the line as a symbolic gesture in her favour but the Bulgarians refused.

The agreement provides that Bulgaria will repatriate not only all Rumanians in the Dobruja but those in Bulgaria who are estimated to number 50,000.

GREAT DISPARITY
BUDAPEST, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—M. Mory, head of the Hungarian delegation, returned to Turnu-Severin yesterday to try and continue the negotiations with the Rumanians.

The disparity between the two sets of proposals, however, is so great that no solution is believed possible without German intervention.

Well-informed observers in Budapest think such intervention will probably take the form of informal pressure behind the scenes in both capitals.

Artillery Pound Chinese Positions In Kwangsi

HUNDREDS OF HOUSES BURNED

SHIUHUNG, Aug. 22 (Central).—The majority of the Japanese who landed at Sheungshuen Island and Hachan Island off the Toisan coast left aboard their warships yesterday morning. Only a skeleton force remains and is subjected to Chinese attacks.

The Japanese who invaded Panghsaihan (Crab Hill) and Tanpai in the Sunwui sector have been repulsed. Both places have reverted to Chinese control.

According to reports from Kwangsi, Japanese troops on the Nanning-Yamchow highway attacked on the morning of August 18 Nalan, Napi and Pancheng which had been recaptured by the Chinese. Heavy artillery fire was directed against the Chinese but the latter stubbornly clung to their positions.

HEAVY CASUALTIES
Fighting raged until noon. The Japanese were driven back with 180 casualties. Those retreating from Pancheng set fire to hundreds of civilian houses.

A Japanese unit pushing southward from Shasi on the Yangtze River, 110 miles above Hankow, was engaged by the Chinese at Kuanyingssu, on August 18, states a Changte report. After sustaining considerable losses, they withdrew to Shasi.

Chinese troops have been actively harassing the Japanese around Kiangling, otherwise known as Kingchow, a neighbouring town of Shasi.

BOMBER DOWNED
LIUHOW, Aug. 22 (Central).—One of a squadron of nine Japanese planes raiding Kwangsi yesterday was brought down by Chinese anti-aircraft gunfire at Lungyentsun, Chwanshan County in the District of Liuhow. It was partly burned up in the crash. Two Japanese airmen were taken prisoner.

The other enemy planes dumped bombs in the suburbs of Liuhow.

The Cyprus Corps of Police, ordinarily an armed body, has been incorporated in the island's military forces.

S'HAH EDITOR SUCCUMBS TO WOUNDS

CHUNGKING, Aug. 22 (Central).—Cheng Chen-chang, assistant news editor of the Ta Mei Wan Pao, who was critically wounded by an assassin in the French Concession on August 19, succumbed yesterday morning, states a Shanghai despatch.

Mr. Cheng, 36, was on the "black list" of 87 persons whose "arrest" was "ordered" by the bogus Nanking regime. He was the second member of the paper's Chinese staff to have fallen victim to assassins' bullets, the first being Mr. Samuel Chang, who was killed on July 9.

Gestapo Round-up Communists
LONDON, August 22 (Reuter).—The Gestapo carried out a round-up of Communists throughout Norway a few days ago, according to news received by the Norwegian telegraphic agency.

Those arrested included most of the leaders of the Communist Party and a number of leading journalists including Christian Hill, who was also manager of the Soviet Travel Bureau in Norway.

The Cyprus Corps of Police, ordinarily an armed body, has been incorporated in the island's military forces.

BRITAIN PREPARED:

MOVE AGAINST EGYPT A MATTER OF TIME

CAIRO, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—Although the evacuation of Somaliland may be a victory for Italian prestige propaganda, it is not regarded as a British defeat. It actually facilitates the General Staff's immediate task in the Middle East as it supplied reinforcements for more important areas.

Italy's goal in Africa remains Egypt for without the control of the Suez Canal and the Red Sea route, Abyssinia is doomed to show strangulation.

Last week, when the Italians marshalled a large army on the Egypt-Libyan border, apparently ready for an attack, the R.A.F. demonstrated its superiority and the British Navy steamed up the Libyan coast under the muzzles of coastal batteries and, morally speaking, knocked the Italians off their feet. Nevertheless, the invasion is thought to be only a matter of time.

PLANS ARRANGED
General Wavell has just returned to Egypt after a visit to London where he conferred with the War Cabinet.

It is understood that final decisions were taken and plans arranged for the coming campaign. Meanwhile Egypt is ready for whatever the future may hold. The people have every confidence in the vast Imperial forces in their midst.

ADEN CONFIDENT
ADEN, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—Although the Italians have occupied Berbera, "only 180 miles across the Red Sea, the people of Aden are confident that any attempt at invasion by the enemy would fail."

Italian losses sustained in the occupation of Berbera are considered here to be out of all proportion to the value of the port. No ships of any size can use it but must lie out at sea and be served by small boats to and from the harbour.

The monsoon season is now raging increasing the difficulties of using the port.

ALLIED FORCES BILL

Six Foreign Armies To Support Allied Cause

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—Sir Edward Grigg, Under-Secretary for War, moving a second reading of the Allied Forces Bill in the House of Commons, said it would enable foreign governments supporting our cause to play their part.

None of them was to be regarded as merely refugee governments and everyone had in some measure the means to play its part in the war.

The Government was gladly seeking to give legal sanction to the establishment of no less than six foreign armies on British soil, training under their own flags, commanders and military law.

BRITISH COMMAND
In principle, these forces would be at all times under the British High Command in its character of Allied High Command. They would be used, as far as possible, as operational formations under the command of their own officers within the British Command.

Where necessary, British instructions were being detailed to familiarise the forces with British material and British practice.

NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM
The Bill provided the necessary machinery for enforcing various foreign codes and also dealt with the action our civil authorities were to take with regard to the arrest of deserters, the holding of foreign servicemen sentenced to imprisonment, the power of billeting servicemen sentenced to imprisonment and also the power of billeting foreign troops.

The House might well be proud to pass the Bill because a new birth of freedom was implicit in it and it represented the finest aspiration of at least 100,000,000 human beings at present under the Nazi heel.

Australian Aid For Chinese Students
CHUNGKING, Aug. 22 (Central).—The Australian Student Federation has remitted £200 to Mr. Han Li-wu, Secretary-General of the Board of Trustees for the Administration of the Sino-British Boxer Indemnity Fund, to distribute to the Chinese refugee students in the bombed areas.

The Federation has previously made generous donations for the relief of the Chinese students.

GUIMARAES DECLARES HE WAS MADE SCAPEGOAT OF $13,000 ARMS TRANSACTION

Evidence At Criminal Sessions Trial

Declaring that he had been made the scapegoat of the transaction, GUILHERME D'ARAUJO GUIMARAES, alias William Guimaraes, alias William Williams, alias Ah Kam, gave evidence in his own defence at the Criminal Sessions yesterday when he was arraigned before Mr. Justice E. H. Williams on two counts of conspiracy to cheat and obtaining $13,200 by false pretences.

Mr. J. P. Murphy, Assistant Crown Solicitor, appeared for the prosecution, assisted by Detective-Insp. C. H. Goodwin. Mr. George She, instructed by Mr. M. A. da Silva, was for the defence.

The jury comprised Messrs. N. F. C. Longberg (foreman), Colin Poon, R. M. Shroff, Pao Wen-pai, Spencer Loo Jim-wai, J. S. Landolt and Tse Shu-wing.

Guimaraes was alleged to have conspired with Yeung Kwong and Leung Tim to cheat Tong Yuk-cho of $13,200, between January 14 and January 23, and obtaining the money by falsely pretending that he was in a position to sell to Tong six light machine-guns and 6,000 rounds of ammunition.

Mr. Murphy said that Tong Yuk-cho, Secretary of the Weihaiwei Administration, came to Hongkong in 1939 for the purpose of purchasing arms for the Chungking Government. In September of last year he met Lam Mo-keung who introduced him to a broker, Yeung Kwong.

On January 15, 1940, Tong, together with these two persons, went to A. A. Rumjahn's office in Wang Hing building where he met the accused. Guimaraes was introduced as the assistant manager of a firm selling arms and produced two catalogues concerning light machine-guns.

AGREEMENT REACHED

An agreement was reached whereby Tong would buy six guns and 6,000 rounds of ammunition and the cost for each weapon, including ammunition, was quoted at $2,200. Accused asked Tong to pay a deposit but when Tong, in return, asked for a bank guarantee, the accused failed to furnish one and the negotiations were broken off.

As the result of a message received, Tong went to the Mei Chow Hotel with Lam Mo-keung where they met the accused together with Yeung Kwong and Lam Tim. A further discussion took place and it was arranged that delivery should be taken by Tong near the Monument, Happy Valley. The question of proof of receipt of delivery was also discussed and it was alleged the accused produced a dollar note and cut it into two. He handed one half to Tong and the other to Lam.

The Crown alleged that while giving the money to Yeung Kwong the accused had handed the half note that was supposed to be given to Lam, to Yeung, and substituted another half of a second bank-note for Lam.

Subsequently Yeung and Lam left the hotel for Happy Valley to take delivery of the guns.

RETURNED ALONE

About 8 p.m. Yeung Kwong returned alone and handed a half-note to Tong, who compared it with his half and found they tallied. He then handed payment of $13,200 to the accused.

About an hour later, Tong received a telephone message, and realised that he had been swindled. Lam had waited in the Valley but no arms were brought. Accused was arrested on June 6, but Yeung Kwong and Leung Tim had disappeared and could not be found.

Evidence was given by Tong Yuk-cho and several witnesses, including S. C. Cheung, who stated that he had written a letter to the accused, on the instructions of Tong, asking for the return of $10,800.

ACCUSED TESTIFIES

Claiming that he had been made the scapegoat in the transaction, the accused denied the charges, and in evidence, said that he knew S. C. Cheung for several years and through him came to know A. A. Rumjahn for some time.

In December last year, he learned that Rumjahn had firearms for sale, the property of a German firm in Hongkong, which was in liquidation. The price for a light machine-gun, including 1,000 rounds of ammunition per gun, was $1,450. The accused was informed that he only needed a police permit to sell the weapons.

Guimaraes further stated that he knew Yeung Kwong for seven or eight years, though not by name. He had a discussion with Yeung and asked him to find buyers for the guns, informing him that a police permit was necessary for the transaction.

FOUND BUYERS

Inquiries were made by Yeung who later told him that he (Yeung) had found purchasers for light machine-guns. Arrangements were made between Yeung and himself to meet at Rumjahn's office on January 15.

On the day in question, in Rumjahn's office, two catalogues were produced. Following discussion, it was agreed that the price for each light machine-gun, plus 1,000 rounds of ammunition, was $1,800, and the complainant agreed to purchase six guns. He then asked for 60 per cent. of the total value as deposit.

The accused said he inquired about the police permit, but Tong failed to produce one. The transaction ended for this reason.

On January 23 accused met Yeung who said that he had made further contacts with the buyers and he himself would do the negotiations. The purchasers insisted on having the signature of a European in the transaction, and Yeung offered $300 to the accused to help in the transaction.

WENT TO HOTEL

The party went to the Mei Chow Hotel where they met Tong Yuk-cho and Lam Mo-keung. It was decided that delivery would be somewhere near the Monument, Happy Valley. Tong left the hotel, presumably to get money for payment, said accused.

Regarding the dollar note, the accused said that when Tong returned to the hotel with the money he suggested there should be proof of delivery. He thought of writing a receipt in Chinese, but, said the accused, he made it known that he had nothing to do with the transaction and it was not necessary for him to sign. Anyway, he would not put his signature to anything written in Chinese.

Tong produced a dollar note and Yeung Kwong cut the note into halves. Yeung handed one half to Tong and the other to Lam Mo-keung, who was to take delivery of the guns.

Later Yeung and Lam left the hotel; the accused, Tong, Leung Tim and few others remaining in the room.

HALF DOLLAR NOTE

About 8:30 p.m. Yeung Kwong returned and produced a half dollar note that had been held by Lam. Tong compared the two halves and, being satisfied, paid over the money. The amount was $10,800.

The accused then picked up $300, the amount of his commission, promised by Yeung, while the latter pocketed the balance. Yeung then issued a receipt in Chinese and the accused initiated it at the request of Tong. Accused said that by signing the note he formed the impression that it was the procedure signifying that he had witnessed the transaction. He left the hotel together with Yeung and Leung Tim.

The first indication that anything was wrong was when he received a letter from S. C. Cheung. As a result he attempted to locate Yeung Kwong and Leung Tim but failed to find them.

Accused concluded by saying that Yeung Kwong had taken the money and made him the scapegoat.

Following cross-examination by the Crown, the hearing was adjourned to 2.15 p.m. today.

QUARREL OVER A DUCKLING

MANSLAUGHTER CASE FAILS

Following a fight which resulted in the death of one of the participants, a man, Leung Shing was charged before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday, with manslaughter.

Leung was alleged to have inflicted injuries on Lau Kin-sang, alias Hakka Chai, in San Uk Ling Village, Shengshui, on July 14. Lau died at the Queen Mary Hospital from rupture of the spleen.

Mr. J. Reynolds, Crown Counsel, prosecuted and the jury comprised Messrs. A. B. Clemo (foreman), Woo Tsung-kwei, C. I. da Rosa, N. D. Meffan, Lim Kim chong, Shiu Kee-ye and Soong Tack kwong.

A verdict of Not Guilty was returned and the accused was discharged.

STALL HOLDER

Lau was a stall holder in the village, while the accused was the fooki at another stall. Some time prior to July 14, Lau bought four ducklings three of which died. The fourth had disappeared.

On July 14 Lau saw a duckling on the hillside, caught it and put it in his basket. This was seen by Ma Chai and Fuk Chai, who claimed the duckling was their own and a quarrel ensued resulting in Ma Chai kicking Lau in the stomach and striking him a blow with his fist.

During the fight it was alleged that Leung came on the scene and gave the deceased several blows. Lau was in a serious condition. An Indian constable arrived and was told that Leung had assaulted Lau.

JUDGE'S OBJECTION

Following evidence by other witnesses for the Crown his Lordship said to Mr. Reynolds: I understand your case is that Ma Chai had kicked Lau in the stomach and there was a fight in which Leung and Ah Fuk also took part. And if I heard you

4 MONTHS FOR PICK POCKET

AMERICAN SAILOR TOO SMART

Chan Mei, 32, rickshaw coolie, was sentenced to four months imprisonment with hard labour by Mr. H.G. Sheldon at the Central Magistracy yesterday when he was found guilty for attempting to steal $40 from L.J. Vaccino, leading seaman of U.S.S. Ashville, at Lockhart Road on August 21.

Det. Sgt. J. Bentley, prosecuting, said complainant and a friend left the London Cafe at 10.10 p.m. on Wednesday night. Complainant's friend engaged defendant's rickshaw and himself boarded another.

RICKSHAW OVERTURNS

Just as it was starting complainant's rickshaw tilted over and complainant felt a hand in his pocket trying to extract money from it. He caught hold of the hand and eventually arrested defendant.

Evidence was given by complainant and his friend, A.J. Bischoff, leading seaman of the same ship.

Defendant said he was engaged by complainant's friend and had started off in his rickshaw. He denied that he attempted to take money from complainant's pocket.

DAILY OCCURENCE

Sgt. Bentley said that such offences happen every day in Wanchai and Americans, Norwegians and other people who visit the district for a drink had their pockets picked. Complainant said Sgt. Bentley had his pocket picked on two previous occasions in that district.

correctly your statement on, the law was that where two or more persons formed a common purpose to commit a felony—assault—and in the carrying out of it death occurred each one was guilty. With that statement of the law I have no quarrel but with its application to this case I have every objection because I which Leung and Ah Fuk also have failed to find any evidence of any such common design.

ROUND THE POLICE COURTS

AT CENTRAL

ATTEMPTED MURDER

Hearing was fixed for Monday at 2.30 p.m. of the case in which a prisoner, Li Chan-lam, alias Lee So, alias Tse Chu-lam 26, is charged with wounding with intent to murder and wounding with intent to do grievous bodily harm to Prison Officer E.S. Frank, at Hongkong Prisons, Stanley, on June 26, when he appeared before Mr. Sheldon yesterday.

Defendant yesterday made a complaint that while all the other prisoners go out to work he was kept in a room.

Det. Sub-Insp. W.N. Darkin, who is in charge of the case, said that it was a matter of prison discipline, prisoner being under punishment and being also a remand prisoner.

EMBEZZLED $3,118.41

Remarking that defendant was lucky that the prosecution was taking the case to the Supreme Court, Mr. G. T. Lowry yesterday passed sentence of four months' hard labour on Yu Kar-chi, 30, on four charges of embezzlement of sums of money to the total of $3,118.41 from the Wing Yue Cheung firm, of No. 131, Wing Lok Street.

Mr. Peter H. Sin said he had permission to prosecute on behalf of the Wing Yue Cheung firm. Up to the date of his disappearance, he said, the defendant was employed by the firm as manager for over two years. The firm dealt in Chinese medicines and defendant was in charge of the account books and money.

In February this year when creditors began to demand their money Mr. Poon Yu-yuen, the senior partner, became suspicious as he knew the firm did not owe money.

He ordered the defendant to hand in his books to be audited and then defendant disappeared. A warrant for his arrest was issued

AT KOWLOON

The older woman claimed her wards, Wong Hing and Leung Yuet-ho, both 13 years of age, were presented to her in Canton to look after. Lung Wong who is first defendant's daughter, said that her ward, a three-year-old girl, Tsui Sai-niu, was also given her in Canton to take care of.

Insp. H. W. Fraser, of the S.O.A., said the three girls were found at No. 68, Temple Street, first floor, when police raided the premises after information had been received that a number of children were being kept on the premises.

The three girls were placed in custody of the S.O.A.

and a reward of $200 was offered.

On August 14 defendant was arrested when a Macao steamer arrived.

Mr. Sin told the Court that defendant had a wife and two children. He was fond of all vices and gambling. Defendant had not repaid a cent of the money he had stolen.

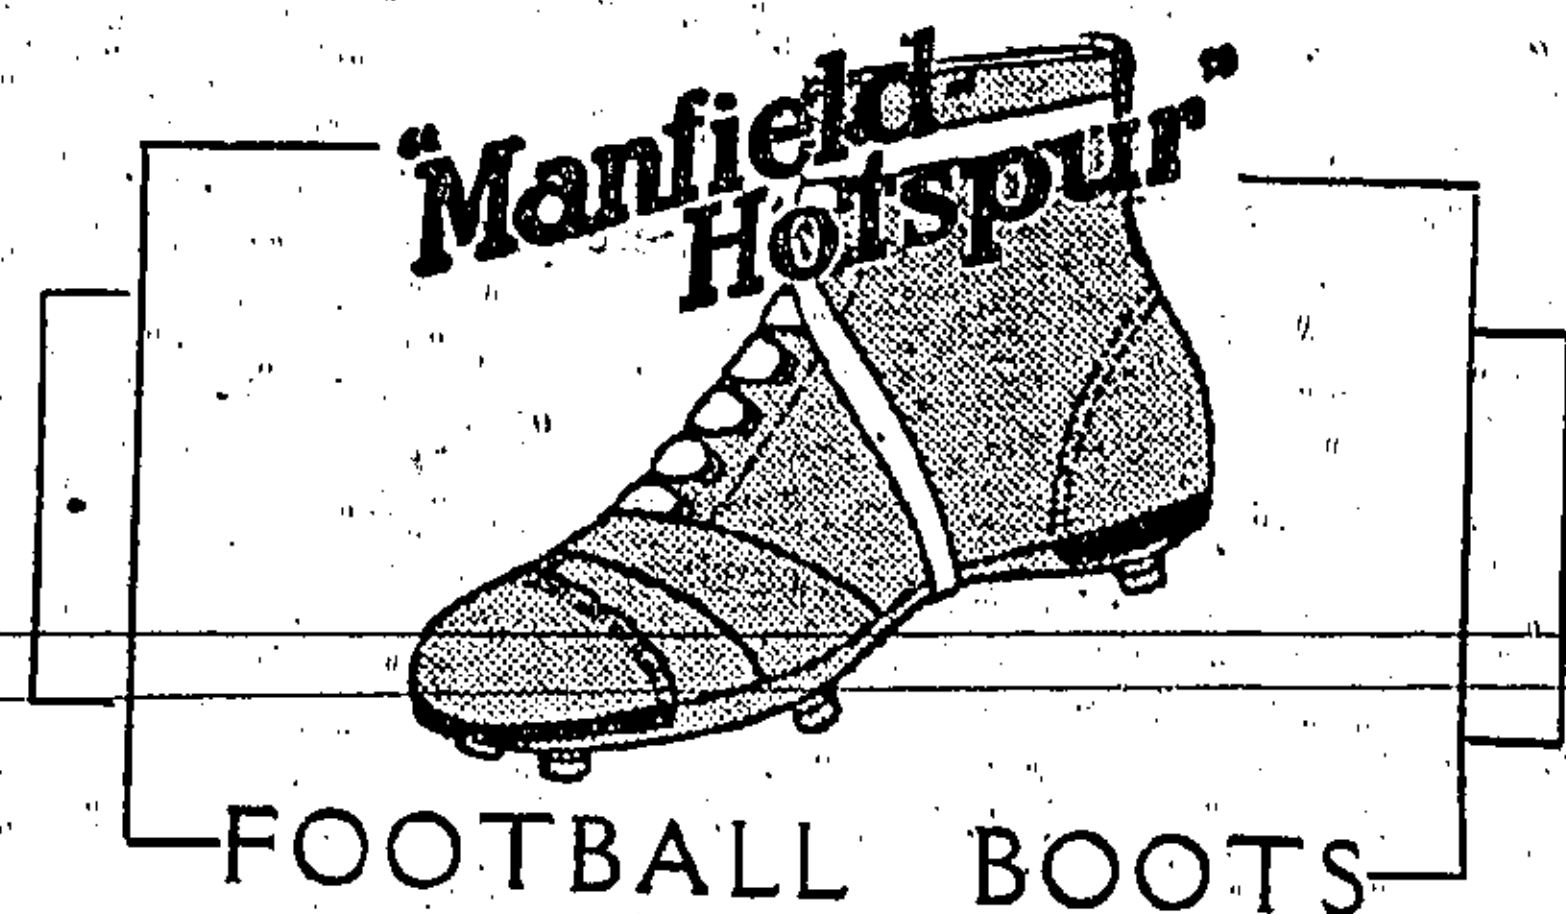

Det. Sgt. J. Cullinan was present for the police.

British Bases For America

THE CONFIRMATION given by the Prime Minister in the House of Commons on Tuesday to the reports that negotiations are in progress for leasing to the United States certain islands in the Pacific and Atlantic belonging to Britain in order to assist America's defence plans has an important political significance. It envisages a further advance in collaboration between the United States and Britain against aggression in the west and in the east and a complete coordination of interests of the two great English-speaking democracies and is a warning to those who are seeking to extend their domination beyond their own rightful confines. These islands undoubtedly hold many advantages as naval and air bases and will offer useful refuelling points in the event of large scale naval and aerial operations being undertaken. At present, however, with the whole of Britain's resources concentrated upon the defence of the mother country against attack and invasion from across the Channel, the value of these bases to Britain herself is negligible. There is no likelihood of any of these islands playing a strategic part in the defence of Britain, as they are far too removed from the zone of hostilities which are involved in the Battle for Britain.

WHEN CONSIDERED in connexion with America's huge defence programme, the strategic value of these islands is considerably enhanced. Properly equipped and fortified, they will present an admirable first line of resistance against any attack launched from Western Europe or East Asia, should any such designs mature in the minds of the aggressors. It is a moot point in America today as to what exactly the United States is preparing to defend—a country, a continent or a hemisphere? The mammoth defence plans which have been set in motion by the United States Government cannot be given any other interpretation except that the safety of the whole Western Hemisphere has now become America's first concern. It was not long ago that a conference of all the American Republics at Havana agreed to pool their entire resources in the defence of the whole Western Hemisphere. With the United States filling the role of guardian of the Americas the decision which was announced by Mr. Churchill in the House of Commons that these islands will be readily welcomed by the South American States. Apart from the Americas, however, the United States has already pledged every possible assistance to the British Dominion of Canada in the north of the Western Hemisphere and the lease of these islands to America might, therefore, be considered as part of the British plan to ensure the security of Canada against Totalitarian attack.

HAPPY VALLEY ROBBERY

DETECTIVES TELL OF ARRESTS

Hearing was continued before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Central Magistracy yesterday of the case in which five Chinese are charged with robbing Ma Kwok-leung of $110, two fountain pens and a metal wrist watch, at No. 10, King Kong Street, third floor, on July 22.

The accused are Ip Chuen, 22, Tsang Sheung, 20, Wu Tin, 26, Fan Cheung, 31, and Mak Chu, 32.

Det. Sub-Insps. W. N. Darkin prosecuted.

The first witness called yesterday was Ma Tsui-lyn, wife of Ma Kwok-leung, who said she lived with her husband, brother-in-law and an amah.

On the day in question she heard the amah shout, "What's the matter?" and she then saw several men enter the flat.

They bound her husband and brother-in-law and searched for about 30 minutes.

Li Luk, the amah, also gave evidence.

THE ARRESTS

L. S. C56 Li Shek testified to the arrests. Mak Chu produced pawn tickets for the fountain pens.

Wong Kam, C57, told of the arrest of second defendant in Hong Kong.

Ip Chuen, who was discharged at the first hearing, said he was a distant cousin of Ip Chuen, who sold him a pawn ticket, for 30 cents, for a watch which he redeemed for $3.30 from the Tai Wo pawnshop in Lai-chikok Road, Shumshuipo.

Hearing was adjourned until today at 2.30 p.m.

ACCIDENTS IN HARBOUR

Slipping on the wet deck of an oil tanker in harbour a 28-year-old male, Li Kau, residing at No. 2, Third Street, second floor, was sent to Kowloon Hospital yesterday suffering from concussion and a scalp wound. The tanker was alongside a Kowloon wharf.

Li's condition was described last night as being very serious.

ANOTHER MISHAP

Another accident as the result of a slippery deck occurred on board a ship which was unloading coal at the time.

The victim was Leung Ping who suffered two cut wounds. He was admitted to Kowloon Hospital and his condition was described as fair.

WHAT the Totalitarian powers in Europe will have to say to this new development does not, of course, count at all, but there is no doubt that some reaction must be expected from Japan. Already a Foreign Office spokesman in Tokyo has threatened that Japan "might have something to say should such a development occur." This undoubtedly refers to the islands in the Pacific which Britain intends handling over to America in order, as Mr. Churchill said, that "our interests, no less than the interests of the Colonies, might be best served." The most heartening outcome of these negotiations, however, is that once again testimony is provided of America's intention to share Britain's responsibility of freeing the world from the menace of Totalitarianism, wherever it has raised its head, whether in the west or in the east. Japan should be firmly convinced now that she will have to face combined opposition from Britain and the United States to any further depredations she contemplates in the Orient, just as Germany and Italy and their associates in the west are beginning to find that Britain is being substantially supported by America in her fight for the freedom of those who have been so ruthlessly robbed and pillaged by the leaders of Nazism and Fascism.

Admiral Sir Andrew Cunningham in command of the British Mediterranean Fleet.

JAPAN TO EXPLOIT NEW MARKET

With a view to exploiting the new Indo-China market the Japanese have, in addition to five recently chartered ships, chartered at least three more Norwegian coastal steamers and three or four Panamanian vessels.

This move seems to indicate that an agreement has been reached between Indo China and the Japanese and large quantities of rice and anthracite coal are being transported from the French Colony to Japan.

British ships, which were chartered to the Japanese, have returned to British service after the expiration of their charters.

The chartering of Norwegian vessels has British sanction since it was approved by the Norwegian Government in London.

These ships were only chartered for a period of three months so as to safeguard against Allied merchantmen being held long in foreign hands. The Japanese have consented to the agreement since these charters are to be paid in American currency which they are lacking.

WHAT AMERICA THINKS

In The Weeks Of Waiting

No one outside of Germany knows whether the delay of the major attack on the British Isles has been longer than it was originally calculated to be. Certainly the British Government, the British people and most of the rest of the world expected the Nazi blitzkrieg sooner after the collapse and surrender of France. British military morale, popular confidence and defensive preparations have improved in the period of waiting. But the danger point has not been passed. Britain and all forces opposed to ruthless might as a dictatorial, ruling force in the world still have a major job on their hands.

Absolutely no reassurance is contained in the Nazi propaganda suggestive of an indefinite delay. That line in the propaganda from Berlin and Rome is just so much more reason to be on the alert. Deception of the enemy is the chief purpose of propaganda. That means that talk of prolonged delay is more likely to mean immediate danger than anything else. Talk and action usually go in opposite directions in the propaganda machine, at least in the part of it directed away from home.

These are facts which explain why British officialdom takes occasion of a relative lull and an unexpectedly long delay to warn the people against letting up in morale and material preparedness. London still is fighting against the natural tendency of the people to underrate the strength and viciousness of the enemy.

CHINESE DOCTORS IN SINGAPORE MEET FORMER CHIEF'S NEPHEW: PEARL RIVER FINDS

BECAUSE OF THEIR HIGH REGARD FOR PROFESSOR JOSEPH LEXDEN SHELLSHEAR, D.S.O., M.D., CH.M., LATE OF THE HONGKONG UNIVERSITY, a number of well-known Chinese doctors in Singapore are arranging a dinner party in honour of his nephew, Lt. Lieut. Bradley, who is stationed in Singapore, writes Lorraine Sheeter in the Malaya Tribune.

It was only the other day that the doctors, former students of Professor Shellshear, learned that his nephew was here. Immediately they banded together to entertain him.

Professor Shellshear is well-known in the Far East as he was Professor of Anatomy at Hongkong University between 1923-1936, and so taught many medical students from this part of the world.

RETIRED TO AUSTRALIA

In 1936 he retired to Australia and he now holds a high post at Sydney University.

When he was in Hongkong, apart from anatomy he was intensely interested in anthropology, particularly in relation to the early Chinese. Through his researches he became interested in the early history of the peoples who dwell in the Pearl River delta.

CHINESE PRE-HISTORY

Extending his research, he became one of the first to be actively interested in Chinese pre-history and it was he who laid the foundation of knowledge which afterwards allowed the Rev. Father Finn (S.J.) to establish that the people who dwell in the delta region were not of the same race as the Chinese who dwell there today, but the ancestors of peoples who now inhabit Indo-China, Malaya, the South Sea Islands, even as far afield as New Zealand.

In Hongkong Professor Shellshear, in order to obtain necessary data for what was then only a theory, conducted excavations over a very wide area and made many interesting discoveries of early pottery and bronze.

Bronzes, belonging to the Chinese people who came down into the delta, eventually to settle there, and pottery which belonged to the earliest people of all—the aboriginals who were in possession of the area before the Chinese arrived—were part of his collection.

FINEST COLLECTION

The collection of pre-historic specimens of this type which he made is possibly the finest ever made by any private individual in spite of the fact that he gave away many valuable pieces to collectors, research workers and museums all over the world.

Professor Shellshear obtained many specimens similar to those in the Far Eastern pre-history section of the Raffles Museum, classified in the specimen cases, labelled "Hongkong." These were presented to Raffles Museum by the Rev. Father Finn and Mr. W. Schofield.

Professor Shellshear's work was recognised by European experts and also by the Chinese Government which greatly appreciated his efforts. Many leading Chinese experts consider him to be the world's greatest living authority on ancient Chinese anthropology. He carried on the work of Dr. Black and Dr. Elliot Smith of the Peking Medical Union.

Some of the doctors who studied under him, who will entertain his nephew this week are Dr. Chan Joo Cheng, Dr. C. G. Foo, Dr. Lim Poh Sin (of the Tan Tock Seng hospital) and Dr. Teo Kah Toh.

It will be of interest to recall that Prof. Shellshear gave expert evidence on handwriting in the famous Carvalho Yeo trial at the Criminal Sessions in 1923 in which counsel engaged included Mr. Eldon Potter, K.C., Mr. H. G. Sheldon, K.C. (now First Magistrate) and the late Mr. F. C. Jenkin, K.C.

DEATH OF M. TROTSKY

Says Assailant Was OGPU Or Fascist

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 22 (Reuter)—The death occurred here today of M. Leon Trotsky.

While en route to hospital, after the attack, M. Trotsky said that the assailant was "either a member of the OGPU or a Fascist."

Before losing consciousness in hospital he was quoted as saying, "I was close to death by the blow from a political assassin, but please tell our friends that I am sure of victory of the Fourth International. Go forward."

During the struggle with M. Trotsky the assailant was said to have screamed repeatedly, "They imprisoned my mother!"

M. Trotsky sustained a badly fractured skull at the Emergency Hospital as the result of an attack on him with a hammer, allegedly by a French Jew, named Frank Johnson, whom M. Trotsky invited to tea.

BIG OIL TRANSACTION WITH JAPAN QUERIED IN COMMONS

No Information On Recent Revision Of Customs Dues

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter)—Asked whether in view of the closing of the Burma Road for the supply of war materials to China it was proposed to cancel the sale of 1,000,000 barrels of oil to Japan made in April, 1940, by the British Government-controlled Anglo-Iranian Oil Company Mr. R. A. Butler stated in the House of Commons yesterday that he had nothing to add to the reply given by the Minister for Petroleum on April 23.

Mr. Geoffrey Mander (Lib.): Could anything be more grossly unfair than to supply Japan with oil to attack China at the same time that China is refused permission to receive it by the Burma Road?

THE TIENTSIN AGREEMENTS

Provisions Being Observed

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter)—In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. I. C. Hannah asked questions regarding the operation of the agreements respecting the Police, silver and currency at Tientsin of June 19.

Mr. R. A. Butler replied that the Consul-General at Tientsin reports that the Police agreement was working smoothly.

The provisions of the silver and currency agreement are being duly observed.

As regards the silver, arrangements were made for sale of an amount approximately the equivalent of £100,000 and the proceeds will be expended on famine relief in North China. The rest of the silver remains under seal in vaults of Chinese banks, where it has hitherto been stored.

PRESS ATTACKS

Mr. Hannah asked what results had accrued from the representations made to the Japanese Government about the failure of the local authorities to suppress anti-British manifestations in Japanese-occupied areas in China.

Mr. Butler replied, "Anti-British manifestations at the present time are confined almost entirely to Press attacks."

SINO-PHILIPPINE RELATIONS

out by tapping our underground mineral resources, developing our industries and opening new lines of communications.

"You, my friends in the Philippines, have also made admirable progress in the development of your resources and industries and expanding your network of communications."

"The economic development of our two countries can only be of mutual advantage, culturally and commercially. We cannot help it because we are such close neighbours. You will realize how close we really are if you remember the fact that it takes only five hours by Clipper from Manila to Hongkong and only a few more hours to reach the wartime capital of China, Chungking, by air."

SIGNIFICANCE OF STRUGGLE
"Another factor which has drawn our two countries closer and closer together is that even the average man-in-the-street in the islands realises the significance of our three years' struggle against an aggressor whose ambitions are so well known to the world. Whatever difficulties we are facing, we are determined not to lay down our arms until our war aims are realised."

"In these critical days, with war raging in Asia and Europe, wise statesmanship is needed. You people of the Philippines are indeed fortunate in having at the helm such a capable statesman as President Quezon, whose keen foresight and masterly grasp of realities enables him to steer the ship of state through such troubled waters." Gen. Wu concluded.

"The Chinese people confidently believe that under the leadership of your President, Quezon, the friendly relations which have always existed between China and the Philippines will be further enhanced."

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter)—His Majesty the King has just inspected a Midlands aerodrome manned by Polish airmen and he spoke to many of them. This unit have, between them, accounted for 23 enemy planes. One Polish pilot has six Nazi planes to his credit.

Mr. Butler: His Majesty's Government, as announced by the Minister for Petroleum on April 23, has said that it is not their policy to interfere with the commercial activities of this company.

Mr. Noel Baker (Labour): Is it not most desirable that Government should avoid the charge of favouring, in effect, put an sanction on a victim of aggression while continuing to supply a most important war requirement to Japan?

FORCEFUL POINT

Mr. Butler: I agree that there is force in that point. The Government is always willing to acquit themselves of such a charge. If Mr. Noel-Baker will refer to the answer of the Minister of Petroleum he will see that there are certain special considerations involved in this particular transaction.

Mr. Butler added that he was ready to put to the Minister of Petroleum the points raised by Mr. Mander and Mr. Noel-Baker.

TRADE RESTRICTIONS

LONDON, Aug. 21 (Reuter)—Replying to Captain Alan Graham in the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said that Lord Halifax had no information of any recent revision of customs tariff for the Japanese-occupied parts of China.

Capt. Graham also asked whether any satisfactory reply was received to the representations to the Japanese Government respecting the restrictions imposed on the trade of Third Powers in North and Central China.

Mr. Butler replied that Lord Halifax was asking for a report on the matter.

Mr. T. E. Harvey (Independent) drew attention to the acute need in China of further Red Cross supplies and surgical instruments and drugs for the civilian population and asked whether arrangements could now be made for supply of these materials to China via the Burma Road.

Mr. Butler replied that Sir Robert Craigie, the British Ambassador to Japan, had approached the Japanese Government about the importance to Red Cross material and was endeavouring to obtain an early reply.

Medical stores could pass by the Burma Road but the difficulty was for petrol to distribute the stores in the interior of China.

Release Of 805 Aliens Authorised

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—The House of Commons met this morning for the final sitting before adjourning for a short recess.

The Home Secretary, Sir John Anderson, answered several questions on the subject of aliens and said that up to last Tuesday evening over 3,000 cases of interned alien refugees had been examined from July 31. Of these 832 were found not to be within any of the categories.

Inquiries were in progress to verify the statements made in over 1,500 applications for release and in 805 cases release had actually been authorised. Sir John Anderson regretted that he was unable to exempt Palestinian subjects as such from the provisions of the Aliens Order although he was prepared, in special cases, on recommendation of the police, to exempt individual Palestinians from the provisions of the Aliens (Restriction of Movement) Order.

GEN. FRANCO TOASTED

Cordial Reception To Algeciras Governor

GIBRALTAR, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—So cordial was the atmosphere on the occasion of the visit of the Governor of Algeciras, General Grandes, that the reception scheduled to last 40 minutes was extended to 90 minutes.

The Governor of Gibraltar, Gen. Sir Clive Liddell, toasted General Franco and General Grandes raised his glass to His Majesty King George VI.

The ceremony which is a normal one in case of a newly appointed Governor, assumes particular interest in the present circumstances, and Spaniards near the frontier construe the friendliness of contact as meaning that General Franco is pursuing a policy of showing that he is now being overborne by Germanic penetration efforts.

The 21-gun salute which was given General Grandes' warship especially pleased the visitors, who are aware that in wartime gun salutes are not normally rendered. General Sir Clive Liddell will make a return visit to Algeciras next week.

AN EVENTFUL VOYAGE

way the lascars grabbed the deceased man's belongings the moment his body was removed. One snatched up his pillow, another his sheet, another his blanket. These will no doubt be hired on another voyage to unsuspecting deck passengers at 50 cents a time!

The third day out—Sunday—the ship found itself in the path of a typhoon. In spite of a full cargo, she pitched and tossed like a cork in a running brook. A strong wind hitting her cross-wise ripped off the tarpaulin covering over the fore-deck, exposing the deck passengers and their belongings to the devastating effects of a terrific shower of rain that followed.

TWO MORE DEATHS

Monday morning saw the sea in kinder mood and by sunset, that part of the China Sea was like a mirrored pool. Few of the passengers who gazed at the full moon rising over the placid waters knew that a second death had occurred among the deck passengers. This time it was a woman and it is believed she died of diabetes.

Entry into Hongkong was delayed by heavy seas encountered on Tuesday, but when the vessel eventually steamed into the Harbour of Fragrant Water, with some 300 voyage-tired passengers, all dressed up, with luggage packed, ready to disembark, a hint of delay in landing made itself felt.

Some "nosey" passenger discovered that yet another death had occurred that morning among the deck passengers, and that, as the cause of death was suspected to be cholera, the ship would be in quarantine for the night—and so it was!

TYPHOON TROUBLE

Next morning the typhoon prevented any communication between ship and shore. With the vessel moored to a buoy, the passengers passed the day in sing-songs and games, their only excitement being the sight of a vessel of about 1,400 tons, which broke its moorings and drifted, dragging its anchor in a whirl of muddy water.

For a time the vessel took the wind broadside and developed a steep list, but soon righted herself and lay alongside the British ship, which was roughly riding the ferry surf in the 70 m.p.h. gale as the wind whistled through her trimmings.

Passengers from the several ships that were moored alongside the wharves yesterday were not able to land until long after 10 a.m.

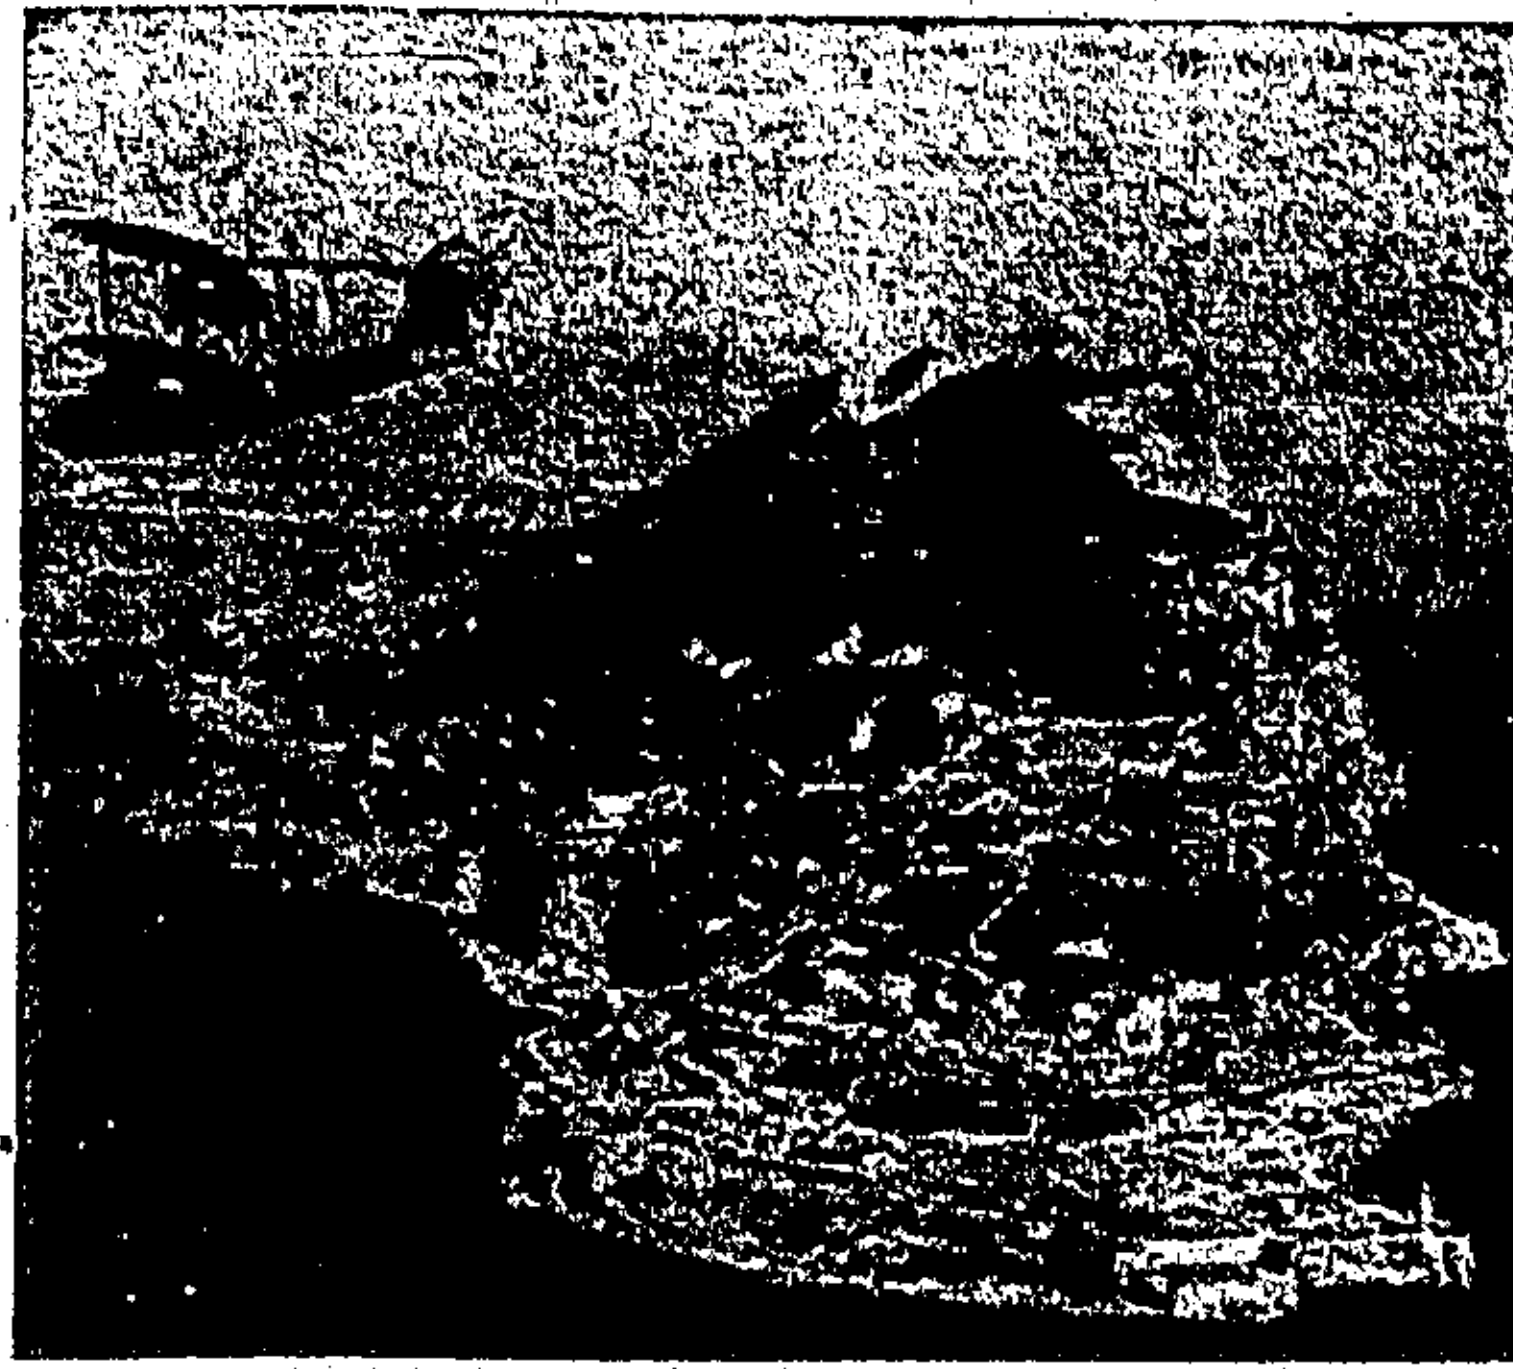

FRENCH FRONTIERS CLOSED

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—A message from Zurich states that the Germans today suddenly closed the frontier between occupied and unoccupied France.

No trains, vehicles or pedestrians were allowed to pass the frontier.

The Lyons Radio states that the Vichy Government has cancelled all meetings of the County Councils as a precaution against them being used as a means for political agitation.

GIBRALTAR: KEY TO THE MEDITERRANEAN

GIBRALTAR, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—An enemy raider was brought down in the sea when Gibraltar was attacked by two successive waves of enemy planes last night.

Bombs falling on the rock in the second raid caused on a great break of fire which was quickly brought under control without causing any appreciable damage. There were no casualties.

All bombs on the first formation fell into the sea.

ENEMY PLANES AT GREAT HEIGHT OVER MALTA

MALTA, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—Enemy aircraft flew at a great height over Malta on Wednesday afternoon and they were engaged by A.A. batteries and fighters which went up.

The Malta Fund to purchase fighters has now reached £7,000.

Imports Into Britain Totalled £689,500,000 In First Seven Months

LONDON, AUG. 22 (B.W.S.)—PUBLICATION OF THE BOARD OF TRADE FIGURES, SHOWING THAT DURING THE SEVEN MONTHS ENDING JULY, imports into Britain amounted to £689,500,000, including £268,000,000 worth of foodstuffs, offers eloquent commentary on the German efforts to convince their people that Britain is on the verge of starvation.

Nazi Radio yesterday asserted that the "total blockade" announced on Saturday would complete the starvation process in the not too distant future.

As this "blockade" has for many months been as "total" as the Germans are capable of making it, the threat arouses no concern here.

It is recognised that the occupation of the French coast has enabled the enemy to wage an intensified war on the British ships passing up the Channel yet, in July, about £27,000,000 worth of goods were imported.

FURTHER FACT

A further fact emerges that from the trading areas still open to Britain, imports in July showed 10 per cent. increase this year compared with the last and the value of exports to the trading area was £2,500,000 higher than in July last year.

Britain's Offer To India Is Rejected

WARDHA, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—The Congress Working Committee passed a resolution rejecting the British's latest offer outlined in the Viceroy's recent statement.

The resolution calls upon the people in India to condemn the attitude of the British Government by holding public protest meetings and other methods.

The resolution declares that the Viceroy's statement was wholly opposed, not only to the principle of democracy, acclaimed by the British Government, but also to the best interest of India, and, therefore, Congress cannot be a party to accepting the Viceroy's proposal or advising the country to do so.

BANK OF ENGLAND NOTES

SHANGHAI, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—Measure have been instituted prohibiting the import of Bank of England notes into the United Kingdom, advises the British Embassy here in an official statement today.

ROYAL AIR FORCE WILL TAKE MAJOR PART IF ITALY INVADES EGYPT

LONDON, AUG. 22 (REUTER).—THE R. A. F. IN THE MIDDLE EAST, reinforced to repair the loss of the partnership with the French Air Force, will have a major part to take should Italy invade Egypt, writes Reuter's Air correspondent.

Bombers will strike immediately if Marshal Graziani's 300,000 white and native troops, now massed in Libya, moved across the frontier.

Troop concentrations, are difficult to hide in the desert. Long supply columns, necessary to keep the army going on the long trek to the Nile delta, would be particularly vulnerable. Enormous quantities of water and petrol will have to be carried.

There is no water at all locally for the first 150 miles journey.

R. A. F. raids have already greatly increased the Italian difficulties in organising adequate supplies of these liquids so essential for their march. The R. A. F. will also be the eyes of the defending armies to a bigger extent than ever before in desert war.

Constant air reconnaissance will keep the British and Egyptian troops posted to the minute with the way the war is going from one sandfield to another.

The R. A. F. in the Middle East is now grouped under one supreme command and the Air Officer Commanding-in-Chief is now able to take decisions, such as the reinforcement of one part of the command from another which, if separate commands which were in force before the outbreak of the war with Italy still existed, would have had to be referred to England.

CHIEF RESERVES

Squadrons at present stationed in Iraq and Palestine are two of the chief potential reserves for the main theatres of the war in the Near and Middle East.

Egypt also has her own air force and its fighter pilots are now in position for the defence of Cairo and Alexandria. Other Egyptian air force personnel have carried out a certain amount of reconnaissance already.

There is evidence that the offensive strength of the Rhodesian and the South African Air Forces operating in Kenya is growing.

Strong attacks on the enemy in Abyssinia and Somaliland, such as have just been delivered, may be expected to increase as the equipment of the bombing squadrons of these two Empire air forces becomes more complete.

The R. A. F. at Aden will share in this determined bid to pulverise Italy's new hopes for command of the Red Sea, as also elsewhere the R. A. F. will do their best to shatter Italian dreams of the seizure of the Suez Canal and the command of the Eastern Mediterranean.

FURTHER DEVELOPMENT OF PHYSICAL TRAINING & RECREATIVE WORK FOR BRITISH YOUTH

LONDON, AUG. 22 (REUTER).—MR. HERWALD RAMSBOTHAM, President of the Board of Education, in the course of a statement in the House of Commons on physical training for youths, announced that he had decided to set up a small directorate to secure further development of physical training and recreative work among the young people of both sexes.

The directorate will work in close co-operation with the Board of Education and the War Office and will be concerned mainly with the young between the ages of 14 and 18.

The House would be aware that there was a great and growing desire of the young people in this country for further opportunities for physical training and recreation to enable them to attain a higher standard of bodily fitness and to make a full contribution in the service of their country.

SEVERELY HANDICAPPED

There was no intention of ignoring wider interests in the youth creating a new movement, based exclusively on physical training. The object will be to strengthen the service to youth on the physical training side, where it was at present most severely handicapped.

Answering questions, Mr. Ramsbotham denied the suggestion that a quasi military organisation was to be set up.

Co-operation of the War

Office was needed otherwise the scheme might be very short of people competent to train the young people in physical and recreative activity.

The work would be done in the closest collaboration with the local authorities and, from enquiries he had made, the local authorities would greatly welcome assistance which he (Mr. Ramsbotham) would be able to give them through this scheme.

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—The German Government has sent a note to the British Government about the treatment of parachute troops should they land in Britain territory. The note was received in London yesterday through the offices of the Swiss Government and is now being considered.

BOMBING RAIDS INTO GERMANY

R.A.F. Pilot Tells Of Poor Opposition

LONDON, August 22 (Reuter).—First-hand comments on R.A.F. bombing flights into Germany were given yesterday by Squadron Leader P. R. Beare, who was recently awarded the D.F.C.

He said that the marshalling yard at Hamm, which is so often mentioned in Air Ministry communiques, is a tremendous target, which accounts for the frequent British raids. The Ruhr is bristling with targets.

Squadron Leader Beare considers the German blackouts good and searchlight and anti-aircraft opposition accurate, but opposition of German fighters at night is nothing to worry about.

The British machines are so good and strong that they can come home with holes in them even against particularly accurate anti-aircraft fire.

The Squadron Leader, referring to attacks on factories in Milan and Turin, considered Italian opposition poor.

DESTROYERS ATTACKED

LONDON, August 22 (Reuter).—Owing to adverse weather conditions, no bombing operations were carried out over Germany on Tuesday night, states an Air Ministry communique.

It adds: "Daylight attacks were carried out on Tuesday and yesterday on aerodromes in enemy-occupied territory. Attacks were also made yesterday by aircraft of the Coastal Command on two enemy destroyers in the North Sea. One of the destroyers was damaged."

"We suffered no losses in these operations."

MINISTERIAL WARNING

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—Broadcasting last night, Sir Archibald Sinclair, the Air Minister, warned the country against relapsing into a mood of complacency as only a small fraction of Germany's heavy bomber force had yet been engaged and the danger of invasion and mass air attacks had not yet passed.

Vigilance, energy and sacrifice of convenience and even of rights and liberties, were still urgently necessary to frustrate an invasion. Then all the emergency measures which restrict the liberty of the subject would disappear with the passing of the emergency, and the new offence, under the Emergency Powers Act and the extraordinary powers entrusted to the executive would vanish with the advent of victory and peace.

Sir Archibald continued that we had every good reason for abundant gratitude to our friends in America for their moral sympathy and material support but it was on ourselves that we must rely.

"The more we rely on ourselves and the more strength and resolution we play here, the more help we shall get from outside."

Sir Archibald said that since August 8 we had lost in defence and in extensive operations over Germany, 104 aircraft against the Germans 709.

VERY FEW ATTACKS

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—An Air Ministry communique says that enemy attacks during the night were very few and on a small scale.

High explosive bombs were dropped on two points in South-East England where some damage was caused to gas and water mains in a coast town and also to a railway line, further inland.

One bomb fell on a hillside, slightly wounding a soldier. At the present moment it is known that this was the only casualty during the night.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (Reuter)

—The State Department in a monthly report showed that Britain has received over $24,000,000 worth of arms which were exported from the United States in July and nearly half as much as for the previous six months.

Hitler's Total War Was Built On U.S. Model

There is evidence in the files of the Federal Government that a substantial part of the plans for Adolf Hitler's blitzkrieg were "borrowed" from the United States, writes John Lear, Associated Press Correspondent in an American paper.

These plans would answer the most interesting question on the war in the Low Countries and in France—how have the Germans been able to strike such repeated sledgehammer blows without serious interruption over so long a time?

For these plans are America's immediately after occupying Vienna, the Germans made a census of Austrian industries and allocated their share in supplying war needs—in identically the same way as the same step is outlined under the American plan.

NOT STOLEN
No treachery—not even clever espionage—is responsible for the fact that the Nazis were aware of them.

The plans were available also to the English and the French, who did not "borrow" them.

I cannot name the source of the following information, but I can vouch for the fact that it is both official and reliable.

Within a year after Hitler came to power in Germany in 1933, the Nazi military attaché here began studying the American war mobilisation blueprints.

The attaché had the right to do so under ordinary diplomatic procedure.

A YEAR LATER
He spent six months making his examination.

Not until a year after he completed his study was the first of the Nazis' national defense laws passed—on May 21, 1935.

The war mobilisation system which took shape in Germany after that was a striking parallel to the American plan in all its principal characteristics.

Agents from this country, working in Germany, described it as a "conscientious imitation."

The similarity was sharply illustrated in the Nazis' very first conquest—the "anschluss" with Austria.

BRITISH PRESS RELEASES

U.S. COMPLAIN OF SLOWNESS

LONDON, August 22 (Reuter).—A complaint of American news agencies of the slowness of British communiques, particularly those relating to air battles, by comparison with those of the enemy was raised at question time in the House of Commons yesterday.

Mr. A. Duff-Cooper, Minister of Information, replying, said that it must be borne in mind that so far as the recent air raids were concerned, German propagandists have had two considerable advantages: firstly, previous knowledge of when a raid was to take place, and secondly, a complete disregard for the truth.

FALSE ACCOUNTS
"This enabled them to begin sending false accounts of the battle to America before their machines actually reached this country," said Mr. Duff-Cooper.

However, he was arranging in conjunction with Sir Archibald Sinclair and Sir John Anderson to accelerate the despatch of news, and he was glad to say that Press messages went through more rapidly on the occasion of last Sunday's air raids.

Consequently, although the plan (shaped during 20 years of both Republican and Democratic administrations) as it now stands has marked out every industrial plant in the country for the part it can play in war. No plant is scheduled to turn more than 50 per cent of its normal output to war purposes. (This would keep peacetime industry from shutting down.)

Seven private soldiers billeted at a hotel in the Yorkshire dales were married at the same time—six at one church and the seventh at another. Regimental comrades provided a guard of honour and a reception.

It is to be remembered that all such payments must be applied within six years as of October 31, 1940, failing which all bonds so drawn and coupons due will become null and void.

HOW TO TAKE CARE OF THE EYES: HOME-MADE EYEWASH

YOU DON'T NEED TO BE TOLD HOW PRECIOUS YOUR EYES ARE, and what delicate and intricate instruments. It may be necessary to remind you, however, of what you should and should not do about their daily hygiene and beauty care.

It is assumed, first of all, that at the slightest indication of trouble you will go to an oculist immediately.

NO ORGANISED EVACUATION.

LONDON, August 22 (Reuter).—The Japanese Embassy in London are not arranging any organised evacuation of nationals from Britain.

An Embassy spokesman said the only Japanese subjects whose passage is being facilitated are a small party of about 40. They wish to return home for business reasons and have been waiting for passenger accommodation for a long time.

TOKYO ORDER
LONDON, August 22 (Reuter).—A spokesman of the Japanese Embassy in London, has commented on a statement reported to have been made by the Tokyo Foreign Office about the evacuation of Japanese subjects from the European danger zone.

The Tokyo statement is reported to have been to the effect that everything possible will be done to this end, and that the areas include Britain. The Germans have been asked to guarantee the safety of three Japanese ships now on their way to Lisbon.

ANNUAL MEETING OF PEAK CHURCH

Four Weddings And Five Baptisms

The annual meeting of worshippers of the Peak Church was held yesterday evening at St. John's Cathedral Hall. The Hon. Mr. T. H. King was in the Chair.

Presenting the annual report, the Rev. A. P. Rose, Hon. Secretary, said that during the year from May, 1939, to May, 1940, there had been four weddings and five baptisms at the Church.

The support being given the Church by the Scandinavian communities in Hongkong was commented upon, and a vote of appreciation for this help was recorded. Scandinavian services, led by Dr. K. L. Reichelt, were held every other week. It was revealed.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED
Appointed to serve on the Church Committee for the coming year were the Bishop of Hongkong, the Rev. K. Mackenzie Dow, the Very Rev. J. L. Wilson, Mr. M. F. L. Haymes, Mr. D. M. Richards, Dr. K. L. Reichelt and Lady Pollock.

Mr. Richards was appointed to serve as Hon. Secretary of the Peak Church for the coming year, subject to the concurrence of the Dean of the Cathedral.

Presenting the Hon. Treasurer's statement of accounts, Mr. M. F. L. Haymes reported a balance in An irritation of the eye, or a headache that seems unimportant to you, may indicate to an expert the need for glasses or the presence of some disorder of the eye.

WINDOW OF SOUL

To the poets, the eye is the window of the soul; to the doctors it is the window of the body. For the eye reveals to the doctor the symptoms of many constitutional diseases.

You may be surprised to learn that the food you eat has a decided effect on your eyes. Vitamin A is often called the ophthalmic vitamin. That's why doctors always stress foods containing this vitamin in the diet for expectant mothers and for children. A well-balanced diet includes enough vitamin A foods, such as butter, cream, eggs and fresh vegetables, for the normal adult.

TEARS ARE NOT "IDLE"

The finest eye lotion in the world is not on the market—you can't buy it. Fortunately you don't have to buy it because it is supplied to the eyes constantly in properly regulated amounts. The tear glands which are situated above the eyeball on the outer part of the eyelids furnish the eyes with an antiseptic fluid. Specialists tell us that tears are much more effective in protecting the eyes against disease-producing organisms than drugs of a strength the eyes can stand. You don't need to wash out your eyes every day in the way that you must brush your teeth to keep them clear—the tears do that job for you.

But there are times when an eyewash is very helpful. After your eyes have been exposed to dust, smoke or glaring lights, a rinse has a soothing effect. When you have gone to bed too late the night before and just can't get your eyes open, you'll find a wash a refreshing "eye opener."

EYE-WASH RECIPE

If you like to make your own eyewash of salt or boracic acid, use two teaspoonfuls of either to a quart of clean, clear water. Measure them into a clean saucepan, preferably one that is not used for cooking. Put your eye-dropper in, too, to sterilize it, and boil them all together for ten minutes.

If there is any sediment throw the solution away and start again. An eye dropper is better than an eye cup—it's cleaner to use and effective. When you wash the eyes with a dropper, throw the head back, pull down the lower lid and drop the solution in the eye. Close the eyes. Roll them round. If a dropper is not handy, saturate a clean piece of cottonwool with the eyewash and let the solution drip into the eye.

BUY BEST GLASSES

A word of warning about sunglasses. If the lenses have waves and bubbles in them, your eyes will be strained in overcoming this distortion. If you wear sunglasses a great deal it is worth the extra money to get a good pair, with the lenses scientifically tinted to tone down light or to cut out harmful infra-red and ultra-violet rays.

The little fine lines round the eyes can be partially prevented by keeping the skin in this area well lubricated with a cream or oil that has special softening properties. Sunbathers and all squinters, please take special notice! Even oily skins may need a special eye cream. If your skin is dry, a regular night skinfood will soften the skin under the eyes as well as the rest of your face.

LIVE STOCK EXPORTS AND IMPORTS

Canada's exports of live animals last year showed gain of well over 50 per cent in value. The value of the exports of cattle for dairy and general purposes rose by more than 70 per cent over 1938, while the number increased by two-thirds.

The cattle exports of the Dominion last year went mainly to the United States, as they did also in 1938. Canada's import trade in live animals is much smaller than the export trade and last year recorded a decrease.

The chief role in exports of live animals is played by cattle, while horses and bees are prominent among the imports.

to be a waste of ammunition. The convoy sailed on, running the gauntlet of a terrific cannonade.
Only one enemy plane appeared in the clouds over the sunlit Channel.

It was a reconnaissance machine "spotting" for the German artillery, but it was quickly chased away by British fighters protecting the convoy.

Then with a roar R.A.F. fighters streaked across the sky.

As the convoy steamed slowly up the Channel, guns on the French coast, nearer Calais, opened fire and the bombardment was still as fierce as ever, an hour after the first shell had been fired.

The bombardment grew less intense after the convoy passed Dover and was steaming towards Deal.
Eighty minutes after the Germans opened fire the convoy had passed safely through the Straits.

No one vessel appeared to have been hit. The bombardment apparently was a complete failure and flashes had given away the positions of the guns.

FISHERMAN'S REPORT

A fisherman reported that there was a bombing attack on a British convoy off the north-east coast
this morning.

It is believed that the ships were of a unit. The convoy and escort opened a fierce fire on the raiders who vanished when Spit-fires appeared.

years in Singapore, where he has been engaged in important construction work at the Naval Yard.

RAPID PRODUCTION

"Malaya's two main industries,
tin and rubber—were at a low ebb when I arrived there in 1938," he said, "and you will be amazed at the rapid strides in production which have taken place since the war broke out in September last
year."

"Now," he continued, "if you were to take a trip through the tin mining areas of the Federated Malay States, you will see dredges working day and night. The price of both commodities are naturally high and trade is booming as a consequence."

HUGE HOSPITAL

Referring to a big maternity hospital which was being constructed in Johore, Mr. Nabi said that this building was now nearing completion. Its estimated cost was over $1,000,000 (Straits).

The building, he said, was the last word in modern design and construction and when equipped was expected to be one of the finest maternity hospitals in the Far East. It was expected that the hospital would be ready for occupation before the end of the
year.

"I understand that it will be equipped on the lines of a military hospital for the time being," said Mr. Nabi, adding that several new military hospitals and barracks had been erected in Singapore and Johore since the outbreak of war and that the Island's defence preparations were rapidly nearing completion.

Mr. Nabi also mentioned that while coal had been imported into Malaya before the war, now, with the scarcity of supplies from abroad, the local collieries were working at full pressure to provide coal not only for local uses for

BISHOP OF MACAO WAS IN ROME WHEN ITALY ENTERED THE WAR

Special to the Hongkong Daily Press

"I WISH IN THESE TROUBLED TIMES THAT HONG-KONG WILL NOT SUFFER."

These were words with which His Lordship the Bishop of Macao, the Right Rev. Dr. A. da Costa Nunes, addressed a representative of the Hongkong Daily Press when interviewed on his arrival in Hongkong yesterday after a year's vacation in Europe.

His Lordship was in Portugal for the greater part of his holiday, but had an opportunity of visiting Italy also.
Intending to return via the Suez Canal, he was in Rome four days before Italy entered the war. He was thus obliged to return to Portugal and travel East via the Cape.

"The majority of Italians are not in favour of their country entering the war," he told our representative. "The Pope had on more than one occasion openly declared the disapproval of the Catholic Church to Italy's entry."

EXPECTED FAMINE

Discussing the expected famine in Europe this winter, His Lordship said that the food question in Europe was already serious and would certainly increase with the approach of winter, but he believed that steps were already being taken to meet eventualities.

"In fact," he declared, "France had only a few days ago declared (according to a wireless message received on board) that there was sufficient food in the country for the coming winter, with the exception of cheese, which seems to be the only article absolutely unobtainable there."

"And what is that, after all,"
he added with a smile.

Dr. da Costa Nunes discounted the possibility of Spain and Portugal ever merging into one nation under one Government. "We are good friends and good neighbours," he said, "but Spain will always be Spain and Portugal will always be Portugal."

"Portugal has always been an historic ally of England," he added,
"and I believe we shall always continue to be so."

FUTURE OF MACAO

As for the future of Macao, His Service Ordinance, the spokesman said, to undergo such training, but the Ordinance had, up to the present, been applied only to subjects of European race.

Many Government servants of non-European race had already joined the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps and other Services of their own accord. This was true of nearly all Government servants of Indian nationality, and of a good number of the Chinese.

Asked if the Ordinance would be applied to British subjects of non-European race in the near future, the spokesman said he could give no information on the subject.

Japanese Warship Shoots Down Plane With French And Nippon Officials

(Special To the Hongkong Daily Press)

AN AMAZING STORY OF HOW A JAPANESE WARSHIP SHOT DOWN A FRENCH PLANE CARRYING FRENCH AND JAPANESE OFFICIALS TO KWANGCHOWWAN WAS RELATED to a representative of the Hongkong Daily Press yesterday by an arrival in the Colony from Kwangchowwan.

The details of the incident appear to have been obtained from reliable sources and their veracity was vouched for by our informant.

THE INCIDENT IS STATED TO BE CONNECTED WITH THE AGREEMENT arrived at between the French authorities in Indo-China and the Japanese Government to permit Japanese inspectors to exercise supervision over traffic into China not only from Indo-China, but also from Kwang-chowwan.

Following this arrangement, a French plane, it is stated left Shanghai for Kwangchowwan, carrying three Japanese military officers and two French officials.
On their flight, the plane was spotted by a Japanese warship.
Mistaking it for a Chinese plane, the warship is reported to have opened fire at it with its anti-aircraft guns and brought the machine crashing down into the sea. It was only then that those on the warship discovered their mistake and that there were French and Japanese officials on board.

None of the occupants of the plane were able to be saved and attempts were made to "hush up the matter."

SALVAGE OPERATIONS
Two days later, however, a special salvage plane arrived on the scene of the tragedy and divers succeeded in bringing up the five bodies of the unfortunate victims, together with that of the pilot.

Chinese troops in the vicinity of Kwangchowwan were attracted by what was happening out at sea and took up positions along the Chinese section of the coast, fearing that the Japanese were about to make a landing on that part of the territory, but were soon able to discover that a tragic mistake had been made by those on board the warship.

Our informant added that a few days later another plane—a Japanese machine—this time—arrived at Kwangchowwan with both new Japanese and French appointees to take up the work which the victims of the mistake had set out to perform.

FURTHER STATEMENT ON AIR RAID WARNINGS

LONDON, Aug. 22 (Reuter).—Sir John Anderson, the Home
Secretary, in the course of a further statement on air raid warnings, circulated to the House of Commons points out that the public must be "prepared, not only to be warned without being bombed, but also on occasions to be bombed without being warned."

As a general rule attacks which developed without warning would be on a comparatively light scale; for where large formations of raiders were reported, public warnings would be given more freely.

If they stopped work and went to the ground every time an enemy aircraft was in the neighbourhood, they would themselves be sabotaging their war production and thus playing into the enemy's hands.

Wars could not be won without taking risks

FOREIGN MAILS

HONGKONG, FRIDAY, 23rd AUGUST, 1940, 9.30 A.M.

The arrivals and departures of mails from and to neighbouring countries and coast ports, of which there is a frequency of more than one service a week will not in future be advertised.
This decision has been arrived at after careful consideration, and the public are requested to co-operate to the extent of forbearing to inquire by telephone the dates of such mails, as answering such inquiries makes heavy inroads on the time of the postal staff.

The Public are requested to note particularly the time of closing the Imperial Air Mail on Tuesday, the 27th August, 1940.

Small Packet Post to all countries is suspended.
